Women’s Arts of the Fiesta

ARIZONA STATE MUSEUM | SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2020 | 9:00 A.M. — 4:00 P.M.

Join cultural specialists and ASM staff to explore the traditions of women in Yaqui society and their roles at fiestas (Yaqui ceremonies).

* Discuss women’s roles with Amalia Reyes
* Discover Yaqui embroidery traditions with Pascuala Valenzuela
* View ASM’s Yaqui women’s arts collection with curator Diane Dittemore
* Tour Old Pascua Museum with curator Brandon Varela
* Make a doll with Feliciana Martinez
* Learn about attending Yaqui Easter ceremonies from Irene Alvarez and Rosenda Perez

For lunch, enjoy wakavaki, a traditional stew eaten at ceremonies, prepared by Doreen Suarez.

The program begins at the Arizona State Museum and ends at the Old Pascua Museum. Participants will use their own cars. If you have a transportation issue, discuss it with us ahead of time.

Space is limited. To register, please contact Heather Ingram at 520-626-3989 or hci@email.arizona.edu.

$45, $40 ASM MEMBERS, $30 TEACHERS/UNIVERSITY STUDENTS/TRIBAL MEMBERS. TEACHERS EARN 6 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT HOURS.

This program is offered in conjunction with ASM’s exhibit Pahko’ora/Pahko’ola: Mayo and Yaqui Masks from the James S. Griffith Collection, open through January 2021.

Special thanks to

OLD PASCUA MUSEUM AND YAQUI CULTURE CENTER

Arizona State Museum is located on the University of Arizona campus, just inside the Main Gate at Park Avenue & University Boulevard. 1013 E. University Boulevard. Convenient garage parking is available one block from the museum at either Euclid Avenue & Second Street or Tyndall Avenue & Fourth Street.

www.statemuseum.arizona.edu